It can be hard to get a job if you don't speak Norwegian

Vocational and language courses – contact your NAV office

Several NAV offices offer vocational and Norwegian language courses for people who speak a minority language. These courses are designed for minority-language speakers who are finding it hard to get a job because of linguistic or educational challenges. These courses usually last around 18 months.

It may require a bit more from you, but it is possible to get a job!

Foreign educational qualifications:

If you have an educational qualification from another country, find out what you must do to get your education recognised in Norway, so you can apply for jobs you are qualified for.

For up-to-date information about getting foreign higher educational qualifications recognised in Norway, visit utdanning.no

Applications to have foreign educational qualifications recognised in Norway must be sent to the Norwegian Agency for Quality Assurance in Education (NOKUT). For more information about how to apply, visit nokut.no

© Copyright 2025 The Regents of the University of Colorado, a body corporate. All rights reserved. For use only by employees in Sammen på vei.