Checking if your home is safe

Sammen på vei
Nurse-Family Partnership©

A good way to check the safety of your home is to get down to your child's level. Do an experiment where you crawl around your home and see what you find.

What does your child see? What can your child reach? What situations may arise?

Crawl from room to room and consider what might need to be secured.

© Copyright 2025 The Regents of the University of Colorado, a body corporate. All rights reserved. For use only by employees in Sammen på vei.